

Dj Danjah (Daan Mooren, 1980) originates from the old school roots culture of hip-hop and funk. Gifted with pair of hands quicker than the eye and a mash-up mind that easily blends all styles and flows, Dj Danjah has been rockin' all major clubs and events in the Netherlands over the past two decades. Emporium, Zwarte Cross Festival, Club Air and Jimmy Woo, to mention a few.

Renown for his mixtapes and mash-ups, Danjah's profound, genre-bending passion for good music and beats combined with his entrepreneurship and hard labor, paved the way for the next step in progressive dance: YummYumm.

Deliciously filling floors in several clubs in the Netherlands and abroad, his eclectic back-to-back spinning dance concept is expanding rapidly. Arousing crowds with fresh, unconventional mixing dynamics, Danjah and his solid YummYumm deejay team keep focus reinventing style on the wheels of steel.
